

Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya

DRAMA CLUB

Objective:

The Drama Club of Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya is committed to:

1. Promoting the performing arts among students by providing a platform to showcase their acting, directing, and production skills.
2. Enhancing creative expression, teamwork, and communication through theater and stagecraft.

3. Encouraging an appreciation for dramatic literature, folk traditions, and contemporary theater.
4. Instilling confidence and stage presence while fostering cultural awareness and storytelling.
5. Offering opportunities for students to explore career paths in acting, production, and the broader entertainment industry.

Activity Plan:

To achieve its objectives, the Drama Club will undertake the following activities:

1. Workshops and Training:

Conduct acting, scriptwriting, and stage production workshops led by experienced theater artists.

Offer regular training sessions on voice modulation, body language, and improvisation.

2. Theatrical Productions:

Organize annual productions of classic, contemporary, or student-written plays.

Host short skits, monologues, and street theater performances addressing social and cultural issues.

3. Competitions and Collaborations:

Participate in inter-college drama competitions and cultural festivals.

Collaborate with local theater groups or professionals for joint productions and learning opportunities.

4. Cultural and Literary Celebrations:

Celebrate World Theatre Day and other cultural events with performances or seminars.

Conduct themed performances to align with significant days or college events.

5. Behind-the-Scenes Skills:

Train students in set design, costume making, lighting, and sound for holistic theater production knowledge.

Encourage students to take leadership roles in directing and managing productions.

6. Community Outreach:

Perform socially relevant plays in local communities to raise awareness on important issues.

Organize drama programs for schools or community groups to foster interest in theater.

Expected Outcome:

1. Enhanced Artistic Skills:

Students will develop acting, directing, and production expertise, preparing them for various performing arts opportunities.

2. Increased Confidence and Teamwork:

Participants will gain confidence, improve public speaking, and learn the value of teamwork and collaboration.

3. Cultural and Social Awareness:

Through engagement with different themes and genres, students will gain cultural appreciation and empathy for societal issues.

4. Portfolio Building and Career Readiness:

Students will have the opportunity to build a portfolio showcasing their work, which can assist in pursuing careers in theater, film, or related fields.

5. Vibrant Cultural Presence:

The Drama Club will contribute to a lively cultural atmosphere on campus, fostering creativity and engagement within the student body.

6. Community Impact:

Outreach performances will positively influence the local community, making theater an instrument of social change and awareness.
