

Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya

ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

Objective:

The objective of this program is to educate students about the importance of electoral literacy, encourage them to participate in the democratic process, and make informed decisions during elections.

Activity Plan:

1. Electoral Literacy Workshop:

Organize a workshop to educate students about the electoral process, voting rights, and responsibilities. Invite a guest speaker from the Election Commission of India or a local NGO working on electoral literacy.

2. Quiz Competition:

Conduct a quiz competition to test students' knowledge about the electoral process, Indian Constitution, and democratic values.

3. Poster Making and Slogan Writing: Encourage students to create posters and write slogans on the importance of electoral literacy and voting rights.

4. Role-Play and Skit: Organize a role-play or skit competition where students can depict the importance of electoral literacy and voting rights in a creative manner.

5. Voter Registration Drive: Collaborate with the local election authorities to organize a voter registration drive for students who are eligible to vote.

Expected Outcome:

1. Increased awareness among students about the importance of electoral literacy and voting rights.
2. Improved knowledge among students about the electoral process, Indian Constitution, and democratic values.
3. Encouraged participation of students in the democratic process and voting.
4. Developed critical thinking and analytical skills among students through quiz competition, poster making, and slogan writing.
5. Fostered creativity and self-expression among students through role-play, skit, and poster making competitions.

By observing Electoral Literacy Day, Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya aims to empower its students with knowledge, skills, and values necessary to participate in the democratic process and make informed decisions during elections.
