

Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya

FILM CLUB

Objective:

Films are one of the most popular media in our culture. Cinema plays a crucial role in influencing and entertaining the wider community. Due to its immense scale, the movie sector provides a wide range of employment opportunities. Films are often utilized as valuable educational aids in classroom. The main goal of the Film Club at Purash Kanpur Haridas Nandi Mahavidyalaya is to educate students on the methodology of movie production and the cultural significance of cinema. It also focuses on enabling the students to appreciate films aesthetically. The club also offers a creative space for the budding film enthusiasts through hands-on training on short film making.

Activity Plan:

1. Themed film screenings:

Themed film screenings choosing one particular theme for each session, such as a specific genre, director, time period, or country, can help members to explore different styles of cinema and expand their movie knowledge.

2. Movie trivia:

Members can learn through quiz competitions with questions related to famous movies, actors, and filmmakers being divided into teams for healthy interaction and friendly competition.

3. Scriptwriting workshops:

Scriptwriting workshops can be organized to educate members as well as other participants about the process of writing film scripts. Club members and participants will be encouraged to write short film scripts and share them with the group. Helpful resources and tips on scriptwriting techniques can be provided and constructive feedback sessions can be organized for the writers.

4. Film analysis discussions:

After watching a film, members can have an open discussion about the movie's story, characters, and themes. Different opinions and interpretations will be encouraged to foster a deeper understanding of the art of filmmaking.

5. Creating own short films:

Club members can be involved in filmmaking by assigning roles such as director, writer, cinematographer, or editor. The finished projects produced by the team can be showcased during club meetings or even can be submitted to local film festivals.

6. Guest speakers:

Local film professionals, professors, or even advanced student filmmakers can be invited to give talks or host workshops on various aspects of filmmaking, such as cinematography or editing techniques.

7. Film festival outings:

If there are local or nearby film festivals, a group outing by the members can be arranged to watch unique films.

8. Hosting Film Festival:

Film festival can be arranged by the club at college where larger community can participate.

Expected Outcome:

- To promote the culture of aesthetic appreciation of film art among students.
- To understand social impact of cinema.
- To provide the technical knowledge of film production to the students to empower them for wide range of career opportunities in film industry.
- To form a group of young filmmakers and cinema enthusiasts.
