About Aikyashree Scholarship

In West Bengal, the Aikyashree Scholarship is a government program to help financially underprivileged students pursuing higher education. Christians, Sikhs, Muslims, Parsi, and Buddhists are just a few of the diverse communities it serves.

Embarked by the West Bengal Minority Development and Finance Corporation (WBMDFC Scholarship), the Aikyashree Scholarship Program aims to give worthy scholars financial aid to follow their aspirations. Did you know the scholarship program covers your tuition and other educational expenses? It's an opportunity to ensure everyone has access to quality education. So why not take advantage of it? Students can apply for the Aikyashree Scholarship through the Aikyashree portal, i.e., www.wbmdfc.org

Aikyashree Scholarship Details

Students can apply for five government scholarship programs through the Aikyashree Scholarship Portal 2024, run by West Bengal Minorities Development and Finance Corporation.

Among these plans which are applicable for our college-students are:

Post-Matric Scholarship for WB: Students of classes 11, 12, Graduation, and Post-Graduation can apply for this grant. It financially supports OBC, SC, and ST students pursuing post-secondary or post-matric schooling. The monthly scholarship amounts vary from 1600 to 1200 rupees.

West Bengal's Bigyani Kanya Medha Britti Scholarship: This grant is only available to female students who have finished their Class 12 education through any West Bengal board. It provides financial assistance to female West Bengali university students pursuing undergraduate degrees in basic science, engineering, or medicine. The monthly award for this Scholarship is Rs. 3,000, and the annual book grant is Rs. 2000.

The SVMCM or Swamy Vivekananda Merit cum Means Scholarship: There are two criteria for this Scholarship: merit and means. Applications are open to students in Class 11 through PhD programs. Depending on their academic performance and financial situation, minority students may be eligible for financial aid of up to Rs. 8,000 per month.
